Land Use and FPIC

NewPrinces SpA recognizes and supports the principles of responsible land use and the right to Free, Prior and Informed Consent (FPIC) as established under the RSPO Shared Responsibility framework.

As a food industry company that does not directly own or manage land, NewPrinces SpA acknowledges that land-related impacts may occur within its extended supply chain. While we do not exercise direct control over land-owning entities, we are committed to encouraging and promoting practices that respect the rights of local communities, indigenous peoples, and other affected stakeholders.

In line with this commitment, NewPrinces SpA will:

- Express clear support for the implementation of FPIC and respect for land rights in the palm oil sector.
- Communicate to our involved suppliers and partners our expectation that they operate in line with RSPO standards regarding land use and FPIC.
- Seek to engage with suppliers who demonstrate alignment with responsible practices.
- Remain open to dialogue and continuous improvement in how we address land use and FPIC matters across our value chain.

This declaration reflects our endorsement of the RSPO Shared Responsibility indicator on Land Use and FPIC and our commitment to support its principles within the scope of our business relationships.

Smallholder Inclusion

NewPrinces SpA recognizes the importance of promoting smallholder inclusion in the palm oil sector, as outlined under the RSPO Shared Responsibility framework.

As a food industry company that does not directly manage agricultural production, NewPrinces SpA acknowledges that smallholder inclusion is primarily implemented by suppliers and other actors in the value chain. While we do not exercise direct control over these activities, we support initiatives that promote the participation, capacity building, and fair treatment of smallholders.

In line with this commitment, NewPrinces SpA will:

- Express support for programs and practices that encourage the inclusion of smallholders in sustainable supply chains.
- Share with suppliers and partners our expectation that they consider smallholder engagement and support as part of responsible sourcing practices.
- Encourage dialogue and collaboration with stakeholders to identify opportunities for smallholder inclusion and development.
- Remain open to learning and improving how we contribute, within our scope, to promoting smallholder participation.

This declaration reflects our endorsement of the RSPO Shared Responsibility indicator on Smallholder Inclusion and our commitment to support its principles within the scope of our business relationships.

Support and Resourcing

NewPrinces SpA recognizes the importance of support and resourcing for sustainable practices in the palm oil sector, as outlined under the RSPO Shared Responsibility framework.

As a food industry company that does not directly implement agricultural production, NewPrinces SpA acknowledges that providing resources and technical support is primarily the responsibility of suppliers and other actors within the value chain. While we do not exercise direct control over these activities, we are committed to promoting awareness and encouraging responsible practices.

In line with this commitment, NewPrinces SpA will:

- Express support for initiatives aimed at capacity building, training, and the provision of resources that promote sustainability.
- Communicate to suppliers and partners our expectation that they consider appropriate support and resourcing as part of responsible operations.
- Remain attentive to opportunities where we can contribute, within our scope, to the adoption of sustainable practices.
- Encourage dialogue and knowledge sharing across our network to foster continuous improvement in sustainability efforts.

This declaration reflects our endorsement of the RSPO Shared Responsibility indicator on Support and Resourcing and our commitment to promote its principles within the scope of our business relationships.
